

Examples of plant identification guides.

Plant name: Lily

Description: hardy perennial grass with a showy flower that comes in many colors; flowers often last a day but are continuously produced; from 1-4 feet tall

Light: sun to shade

Soil: tolerant

Water: tolerant

Habitat: native species grew in woodlands, but very tolerant of other places now

How to grow: little care; spreads with rhizomes

RESOURCE:

Plant name: Iris

Description: hardy perennial plant with showing flowers that comes in many colors; in the grass family; seed has one cotyledon but grows best from rhizomes; grows up to 2 feet tall; blooms in the spring

Light: full sun to part shade

Soil: rich, well drained soil

Water: tolerant

Habitat: woodlands, but tolerant

How to grow: little care; spreads with rhizomes

RESOURCE:

PINE
NEEDLE

ROSEBUSH

OLIVE

LUP

ANILISA
OLEANDER

GERANIUM

HORSETAIL
LEAF

HYDRANGEA

ROSEMARY

ABETUS

TREE
SLOVER

John Unger, Lillies, 3 9A

PLANT DESCRIPTION

Root Sulcata fibrosa
 Stem erectum
 Leaves three compound finely cut, rolled beneath by vein
 Inflorescence Umbellae
 Flower actinomorphic, nodding not fragrant perfect regular
 Calyx hypogynous
 Sepals two small scarious
 Corolla regular
 Petals white turning to pink
 Stamens hypogynous six, unequal three
 Anther unilobed
 Pollen quadrate
 Fruit resiniferous
 Ovary one celled
 Style stigma
 Fruit capsule
 Seeds
 Habitat Locality Bush woods
 Remarks

DRAWINGS

CLASSIFICATION

No. 1 Date April 26 1911
 Family Rafan.
 Scientific Name Licania lucida
 Common Name Caribbean Carrot

Ways to Identify Wildflowers - By Flower Color

