World Book Day 2023

Dear Parent/Carer,

World Book Day is next Thursday 2nd March. To celebrate we invite children to dress up as a book character and to make a biscuit out of gingerbread and decorate it to depict the character or the theme of the book.

As the theme is Your World Book Day, the children want to make it their own by raising money for the victims of the recent earthquake in Syria and Turkey. They propose that the biscuits are sold to raise money. If any parents wish to make extra cakes then we would gratefully receive them to sell for a good cause. The sale will take place in Stibbard School Hall at 3 pm on Thursday 2nd March.

Each child will receive a £1 World Book Day voucher which can be swapped for one of the new and completely free World Book Day books available from participating booksellers. To see which books are available this year visit:

<https://www.worldbookday.com/books/>

Can you child bring their favourite book to school or a picture of the front cover of their favourite book. They will be using it in activities during the day.

I encourage you to join the library if you have not already done so as this is a great way for your child to develop their reading skills when they are exposed to so many classic and recent titles and all for free!

Mrs Beardon
