Newsletter week beginning 6th February 2023

DIARY DATES

Dear families,

Firstly, I would like to thank you all for your kind words on my appointment. I am feeling very proud to be the new permanent Headteacher of your federation.

Secondly, I would like to take this opportunity to tell you about some of the work we are doing or want to do in the community.

Whale's class in North Elmham were at T@2 at the Village hall this week. We think it is essential for the younger generation and older generation to spend time together to see the world through another person's eyes. Children from North Elmham Primary will attend every month, moving forward. The FONES (PTA) have been working hard to organise events to make money for the school (the children have decided on some lunchtime play equipment.) We are super excited for the disco this evening!

At All Saints, we have had two out of three pond parties. We now have a much safer, clearer forest school area to work and learn in.

We are looking to work alongside the Stibbard Parish council in helping with events and functions. I will keep you posted!

Pupil Parliament at All Saints have voted for a new School Charity (whom we will support by fundraising) It is:

Team Sea

All of the children designed a piece of artwork earlier in the half term on our federation parable so we can update our Vision and Values posters. I can confirm we have a winner (and runner up's) who will be announced the week back after half term!

World Book Day:

Is on Thursday March 2nd.

We will be inviting all children to come in to school dressed as a character from a book. We will also invite children from both schools to bake gingerbread/biscuit in the shape of a book character or book theme and decorate or ice their creation to bring into school on 2nd March. We will have a display in both schools of the children's creations and prizes will be award for the most creative.

We will send more information closer to the time but wanted to give you as much information as possible before the event to prepare costumes and think about your baking!

Earthquake:

We know many of you will have been terribly saddened by the news this week from Syria and Turkey. After half term, we will be discussing how we can support the appeals for aid as a Federation. Please do not hesitate to give us suggestions if you have any?
